I, Michael Barton of Dammstrasse 19, CH-6300 Zug (address of business), Switzerland, Senior Vice President of Pala Investments AG (PIAG) affirm:

1. I am a Senior Vice President of PIAG, a company incorporated in Switzerland that provides strategic investment advice to Pala Investments Holdings Limited (Pala).
2. Pala is an investment company that invests in the mining industry, including through its subsidiary Norcast S.à.r.l (Norcast), the applicant in this proceeding.
3. I am authorised to make this affidavit on behalf of Norcast and, save where otherwise stated, do so from my personal knowledge. In this affidavit I depose to matters relating to:
 - (a) the sale by Norcast of Norcast Wear Solutions, Inc (NWS) to 0913034 B.C. Ltd (BC), a subsidiary of Castle Harlan, Inc (Castle Harlan) which was completed on 6 July 2011; and
 - (b) the sale by Castle Harlan of BC to Bradken Operations Pty Ltd (Bradken Operations), a subsidiary of Bradken Limited (Bradken), which was announced by Bradken approximately seven hours later. Bradken is the respondent in this proceeding.

4. I was responsible for supervising the NWS sale process on behalf of Pala and Norcast and for instructing bankers and other advisers in relation to the same in my capacity as an employee of PIAG. Prior to the completion of the sale of NWS to Castle Harlan on 6 July 2011, I was also a director on the board of directors of NWS.

Pala and Norcast

5. Pala is an investment company that is incorporated in Jersey. Pala invests exclusively in the mining industry. It acquires shareholdings in mining and mining related companies and seeks to grow them by providing financing and strategic advice (through its exclusive investment advisor, PIAG).
6. Pala carries on this business directly and through subsidiary companies, including Norcast, which is incorporated and has its principal place of business in Luxembourg. Prior to the completion of the sale of NWS to Castle Harlan on 6 July 2011, Norcast was the 100% shareholder of NWS.

NWS

7. In 2007, Pala, through a wholly owned subsidiary, NWS, acquired all of the outstanding units of Norcast Income Fund, including its operating subsidiary, Norcast Castings Ltd (Norcast Castings) in a take-private transaction. NWS is incorporated in Canada and, through its subsidiaries such as Norcast Castings, Swanmet (Singapore) Pte. Ltd. (Swanmet Singapore) and Swanmet Castings (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd. (Swanmet Malaysia), manufactures and supplies cast consumable products for the mining industry, including grinding mill liners.
8. Grinding mill liners are liners that are fitted to the inside of the grinding mills. Grinding mills are machines used to grind ore as part of the process to recover minerals such as gold, copper and zinc and in refining bauxite. The mill liners attach to different sections of the mill – the "feed" end, the "main body" and the "discharge" end. They wear out as a result of abrasion and impact in the grinding process, and need to be regularly replaced.
9. NWS is the second largest global supplier of grinding mill liners, with an estimated global market share of 16%.
10. NWS's primary manufacturing facility is in Mont-Joli, Quebec, which is one of the largest foundries in North America, and the largest mill liner production plant in the world. It is owned and operated by Norcast Castings, a company incorporated in Canada.
11. Norcast Castings supplied grinding mill liners into the Australian market from 2001 to 2003, when anti-dumping measures were imposed by the Australian Customs Service

Mr. Gilson

- (ACS) in respect of exports of grinding mill liners from Canada to Australia, resulting in dumping duty being payable by Australian importers of Norcast Castings' Canadian manufactured mill liners (see Annexure MB-1).
12. In February 2010 NWS acquired the assets of Swanmet Engineering Pte. Ltd., a manufacturing company with operations in Malaysia and Singapore producing a range of cast products for the mining, aggregates, cement and oil and gas industries (the Swanmet assets). The Swanmet assets are owned by NWS through its subsidiaries Swanmet Singapore and Swanmet Malaysia. Swanmet Malaysia has a mill liner manufacturing plant in Malaysia, while Swanmet Singapore has a distribution facility in Singapore.
 13. Further, information regarding the supply by NWS of GML in relation to the Australian market is set out in Confidential Annexure MB-2. This information is contained in Confidential Annexure MB-2 because it may be confidential to NSW. Throughout this affidavit, I refer to any information that may be confidential to NWS, or Castle Harlan, in Confidential Annexure MB-2.

Bradken

14. Bradken is incorporated and carries on business in Australia and is listed on the Australian Securities Exchange: see Annexure MB-3. It manufactures and supplies mining consumable products, including grinding mill liners. It also provides maintenance and refurbishment services associated with those products.
15. Bradken manufactures grinding mill liners from facilities in Adelaide, and Runcorn in Queensland.
16. In 2005, Bradken acquired Roche Castings Pty Ltd (Roche), also a manufacturer of grinding mill liners, to become the sole domestic manufacturer of grinding mill liners in Australia.
17. Bradken is the ultimate holding company of Bradken Operations: see Annexure MB-4.

Castle Harlan

18. Castle Harlan is a private equity firm that is incorporated in the United States and has offices in New York.
19. I believe that Castle Harlan owns 100% of the shares of Castle Harlan Australia LLC (Castle Harlan Australia) (see Annexure MB-5). Castle Harlan Australia owns 50% of the shares in Castle Harlan Australian Mezzanine Partners Pty Limited (CHAMP). CHAMP is a company incorporated and carrying on business in Australia: see Annexure MB-6.

M. Bolton

Relationship between Castle Harlan and Bradken

20. An extract from Castle Harlan's website (see Annexure MB-7), states that:

"[w]e have also joined forces with one of Australia's leading private investment firms to create CHAMP - Castle Harlan Australian Mezzanine Partners. Together Castle Harlan and CHAMP employ more than 35 investment professionals."

21. In a press release dated 28 July 2008 (see Annexure MB-8), Castle Harlan said:

"CHAMP Private Equity was formed in 2000 as Castle Harlan Australian Mezzanine Partners by the founders of CHAMP Private Equity's predecessor and Castle Harlan. CHAMP Private Equity and its predecessor have made more than 60 investments since 1987 in companies operating in Australia and New Zealand. CHAMP Private Equity currently maintains offices in Sydney, Australia and Singapore"

22. An extract from CHAMP's website (see Annexure MB-9), states that:

"[t]he CHAMP Private Equity funds are the result of a joint venture initiated in 2000 between [Australian Mezzanine Investments Pty Limited] and Castle Harlan, Inc. of New York, a mid market Buy Out specialist in the United States."

23. CHAMP and Castle Harlan have a common director, Howard Morgan, who is the Co-President of Castle Harlan and a director of CHAMP: see Annexures MB-6 and MB-10.

24. I believe that CHAMP, together with ESCO Corp. and Bradken management, owned 100% of the shares in Bradken, before it was listed on the Australian Securities Exchange, in 2004.

25. CHAMP and Bradken also have a common director, Nicholas Greiner, who is the Deputy Chairman of CHAMP and the Chairman of Bradken: see Annexures MB-3 and MB-6.

26. In the article, "Crossing borders" by Vyvyan Tenorio, published in The Deal on 11 October 2004 (see Annexure MB-11), Mr Morgan is reported as having said that:

"[o]ur relationship [with CHAMP] is a two way street .. we've learned a lot from each other and benefited from each other's relationships to the point where they're now collective relationships" (emphasis added).

27. These "collective relationships" include a relationship with Bradken. On 28 July 2008, Castle Harlan announced that it had agreed to sell AmeriCast Technologies, Inc

M. B. Ten

(AmeriCast) to Bradken Limited. In Castle Harlan's press release regarding the deal (see Annexure MB-8), Mr Morgan is reported as having said:

"[w]e know Bradken very well and have had long relationships with its CEO Brian Hodges, Chairman Nick Greiner, and many of the senior Bradken management team".

28. Mr Morgan, together with his colleague, Mr Philip Anand, led the Castle Harlan's team for the acquisition of NWS.
29. An article from the Toronto Globe and Mail Newspaper (see Annexure MB-12) reports a Castle Harlan spokesman as having said that:

"[i]n the last ten years Castle Harlan and our Australian affiliate CHAMP have successfully partnered with corporate co-investors many times; this includes partnering with Liberty Media in the acquisition of Austar, partnering with ESCO in the acquisition of Bradken, partnering with Bradken in the acquisition of AmeriCast, and now partnering with Bradken again in the acquisition of [NWS]. As private equity lead investors, we enabled these corporations to participate in investments that for many reasons they couldn't or didn't want to lead at the time. In several instances the corporate partner decided to own the business outright, and we at Castle Harlan saw immediate value-added from the partner and the possibility of a long term strategic fit".

Sale of NWS by Norcast to BC

30. In late 2010, Norcast decided to explore options for a potential sale of NWS, and in January 2011, UBS Securities Canada, Inc (UBS) was retained by NWS to conduct a competitive process for the sale of NWS.
31. UBS created confidential sales materials, including a "teaser" (see Annexure MB-13) and a confidential information memorandum (IM) (see Annexure MB-14) describing the business of NWS. UBS provided the teaser to a list of potential acquirers and informed them that they had to sign a confidentiality agreement with NWS before the release of the IM and other details relating to the sale of NWS.
32. I decided that Norcast would take a different and tailored approach with competitors of NWS (such as Bradken) and not distribute teasers to them. The rationale for taking this approach was that the teaser itself also contained confidential information regarding the business of NWS. Norcast was open to receiving bids from competitors – indeed it would have preferred bids from competitors because they would be likely to pay a significant premium to acquire NWS in light of synergies they may be able to achieve. However, it did not wish for confidential information to be disclosed to such parties unless they were genuinely interested in acquiring the business.

33. To gauge whether Bradken was genuinely interested in acquiring NWS, I decided that UBS (through its local representatives) would inform Bradken of the intended sale of NWS and then allow it to contact UBS to enter the bid process if it sought to do so.
34. Through the regular update calls with UBS regarding the NWS sale process, I became aware that UBS had not contacted Bradken (as it had been instructed to do) because UBS did not consider that it had a sufficiently good relationship with a contact in Australia or elsewhere such that they could inform Bradken about the sale process in an appropriate manner.
35. On 24 February 2011 I was in Sydney for a business trip during which I met with representatives of Goldman Sachs, including one of its managing directors, Sean Walsh. During the meeting, I informed them about the NWS sale process that was being run by UBS. They informed me that they had two clients, one of which was Bradken, to whom they would like to pass on information about the sale process. I agreed to provide them with further information and told them that they should explain to Bradken Norcast's tailored approach regarding the distribution of teasers to competitors and how Norcast would like to be convinced of their seriousness in acquiring NWS before further information of the sale process was disclosed.
36. I understood that Goldman Sachs had a strong relationship with Bradken. I was aware that Goldman Sachs had advised CHAMP in relation to the initial public offering of Bradken in 2004. I subsequently discovered that Goldman Sachs had also advised Bradken in relation to Bradken's acquisition of AmeriCast in 2008 (see Annexure MB-15), where Sean Walsh led the Goldman Sachs team advising on the acquisition. I expected that Goldman Sachs would enquire with Bradken if it was interested in participating in the sale process and also seek the mandate to act for Bradken in connection with the sale of NWS.
37. The next day, on 25 February 2011, I emailed Goldman Sachs a copy of the teaser, and asked them to send it only to their other client, but not to Bradken, for the reasons described in paragraph 32 above. However, I explicitly asked them to discuss the sale process with Bradken on the basis described in paragraph 33 above.
38. Based on my considerable experience negotiating acquisitions, I expected that once Bradken had been informed of the sale process, it would seek to participate if it was interested in doing so. In my experience, parties commonly seek to participate in sales processes when they have not been formally invited if they are interested in acquiring the business being sold. As noted in paragraph 40 below, this is precisely what Castle Harlan did.

M. Gator

39. On 7 July 2011, upon hearing Bradken's announcement that it had agreed to acquire NWS from Castle Harlan within approximately seven hours after the completion of the sale by Norcast, I wrote to Sean Walsh by email asking him to confirm that Goldman Sachs had contacted Bradken in relation to the NWS sale process as requested. By email on 10 July 2011, he confirmed that Goldman Sachs had done so. A copy of this email chain is in Annexure MB-16.
40. Bradken did not seek to enter, or make any contact with Norcast regarding, the sale process of NWS. However, approximately one week after I believe that Bradken was made aware by Goldman Sachs of the sale process at my request, on about 2 March 2011, Castle Harlan made an unsolicited approach to the New York office of UBS expressing interest in participating in the sale process.
41. More than twenty prospective acquirers executed confidentiality agreements with NWS in order to permit them to participate in the first round of the sale process and obtain the IM. Castle Harlan was one of these potential acquirers, and signed a confidentiality agreement on 15 March 2011 (see Annexure MB-17).
42. At the end of March 2011 a shortlisted number of potential acquirers, including Castle Harlan, were chosen to participate in the second round of the sale process. The second round involved due diligence access to a data room, a management presentation and site visits.
43. On 26 April 2011, UBS wrote to the shortlisted potential acquirers, including Castle Harlan, explaining the process for submitting final offers, which were to include a "Bid Letter" (see Annexure MB-18). It states that the Bid Letter was to contain "clear statements" regarding (among other things) the following information:
- "Financing: Provide a description of all the sources of funding for the purchase of the Company and an indication of the timing and status of funding commitments. If applicable, your Final Offer should include fully committed financing letters, capable of being executed, and a list of contacts, with telephone numbers, for your source(s) of financing, with whom any financing arrangements can be discussed in detail."
44. The deadline for providing Bid Letters was 27 May 2011. Further, confidential information regarding the steps that followed is in Annexure MB-2.

M. Bradken

45. On 17 June 2011, Norcast and Castle Harlan, through BC, executed a Share Purchase Agreement (Share Purchase Agreement) for the sale of NWS for US $190 million (see Annexure MB-21). The sale completed on 6 July 2011.
46. Further, confidential information regarding the terms of the Share Purchase Agreement, and other steps taken on 17 June 2011, is in Annexure MB-2.

Sale of BC by Castle Harlan

47. Approximately seven hours after Norcast announced the completion of the sale of NWS to Castle Harlan, Bradken announced that it had agreed to acquire NWS from Castle Harlan for A $202 million, which is approximately US $27 million more than the price Castle Harlan paid to Norcast (see Annexure MB-23). Bradken subsequently announced on 12 July 2011 that its acquisition of NWS from Castle Harlan was completed (see Annexure MB-24).
48. I have considerable experience negotiating commercial transactions and considering the types of issues which the board of directors of a publicly listed company must consider for acquisitions of a scale and complexity commensurate with the NWS deal. On the basis of this experience, I consider that it is almost impossible to conduct due diligence, negotiate final terms of such deals within hours (as opposed to days or weeks) and without exchanging confidential information in relation to the asset or company to be acquired. Accordingly, I infer that Bradken had obtained confidential information of NWS through Castle Harlan during the sale process prior to the completion of the sale by Norcast.
49. Bradken does not deny that it received confidential information. On 20 July 2011, the solicitors for Norcast in Australia for this matter, Allens Arthur Robinson (Allens), wrote to the solicitors for Bradken, Mallesons Stephen Jaques (Mallesons) seeking preliminary discovery (see Annexure MB-25). Mallesons' reply, dated 26 July 2011 and which I discuss further in Annexure MB-2, is further indication that Bradken may have received confidential information relating to the sale by Norcast of NWS.
50. As noted above, a Castle Harlan spokesperson is reported as having said that Castle Harlan was "partnering with Bradken again in the acquisition of [NWS]" (see Annexure MB-12).
51. Castle Harlan did not disclose to Norcast that it was "partnering" with anyone. Moreover, there was certainly no disclosure by Castle Harlan that it had a pre-existing contract, arrangement or understanding with Bradken that Bradken would not bid to acquire NWS from Norcast because Castle Harlan would on-sell NWS to Bradken immediately following Castle Harlan's acquisition from Norcast.

M. Lutter

52. If Norcast had known of any such pre-existing contract, arrangement or understanding prior to executing the Share Purchase Agreement with BC, it would not have accepted the price of US $190 million offered by Castle Harlan/BC and the material terms of the Share Purchase Agreement would have been agreed differently. Rather, it would have sold NWS directly to Bradken for at least A $202 million (which price Bradken was evidently prepared to pay for NWS).
53. I infer that the reasons why Bradken was prepared to pay this higher price for NWS included that Bradken expected that there would be considerable synergies in combining its business with that of its competitor, NWS.
54. Bradken has acknowledged the existence of such synergies. Bradken's announcement of the acquisition (Annexure MB-23) states that:

"[c]onsiderable synergies have been identified based on Bradken's strong product development focus and [NWS]'s cost leadership. The acquisition of this business significantly strengthens Bradken's worldwide sales and distribution network which can be leveraged across other consumable wear parts. Synergies will commence in FY12 and will continue to increase over the next four years.

[NWS]'s Canadian operations and the North and South American markets will be managed by Bradken's US Resources Business, a part of the Engineered Products Division, and is expected to add approximately A$75 million of sales and A$30 million of gross margin in 2011/2012.

The acquisition includes Swanmet, a Malaysian foundry group acquired by [NWS] in March 2010. Swanmet currently manufactures and sells wear parts into mining and energy markets including Australia. Swanmet offers significant low cost capacity for the manufacture of mining consumables including Crusher Liners and Ground Engaging Tools (GET). Swanmet operations and the Asian and African markets will be managed by Bradken's Australian Mineral Processing Business, a part of the Mining Products Division, and is expected to add approximately A$35 million of sales and A$13 million of gross margin in 2011/12.

55. I believe that Castle Harlan also recognised the existence of synergies that would be achieved by combining the businesses of NWS and Bradken. As noted in paragraph 29, Castle Harlan has been reported as having said that "we at Castle Harlan saw immediate value-added from the partner and the possibility of a long term strategic fit".

M. H. H. H.

56. Based on my considerable experience negotiating acquisitions, I believe that the value of NWS to a trade acquirer, such as Bradken, was materially higher than the value to a private equity acquirer, such as Castle Harlan
57. It is for these reasons that I believe that Castle Harlan and Bradken did not want Norcast to know of Bradken's involvement in the NWS acquisition or of the pre-existing agreement between them.

The supply of grinding mill liners in Australia

58. Norcast Castings employed a representative in Australia in mid 2000, and secured its first contract to supply grinding mill liners into Australia in late 2001.
59. Following an application by the Australian industry, comprising Bradken and Roche, in September 2003, the Minister of Justice and Customs accepted the recommendation of the ACS in its report (see Annexure MB-1) and declared that anti-dumping measures be applied to grinding mill liners exported to Australia from Canada.
60. After the imposition of anti-dumping measures in respect of grinding mill liners exported to Australia from Canada in 2003, Norcast Castings did not receive any new orders to supply grinding mill liners manufactured at its Canadian mill liner manufacturing plant to Australian customers. Norcast believes that this is because Norcast Castings was not price competitive in the Australian market as a result of the dumping duty payable on imports of grinding mill liners from Canada.
61. In 2005, Bradken acquired Roche to become the sole domestic manufacturer of grinding mill liners. Following this acquisition, Bradken's primary competitor in the Australian market was PT Growth Asia, an Indonesian manufacturer of grinding mill liners which had been in the market for some years, although in 2003 ACS noted that the Australian industry members had "dominated the Australian market until the entry of Norcast at dumped prices [this was] despite Growth Asia's presence in the market for some years" (see Annexure MB-27).
62. On 31 July 2008, anti-dumping measures in respect of grinding mill liners exported from Canada were continued by the ACS, following an application by Bradken (comprising the Australian industry) in January 2008 (see Annexure MB-28).
63. As discussed (with reference to confidential information) in Annexure MB-2, Bradken removed a further competitive threat when it acquired NWS.

Causes of action that Norcast may have against Bradken

M. Hutton

64. In light of the matters referred to above, Norcast believes that it may have a right to obtain relief from Bradken. In particular, Norcast believes that:
- (a) Bradken's acquisition of the shares in BC may have the effect, or was likely to have the effect, of substantially lessening competition in a substantial market in Australia (being a market for the supply of grinding mill liners) in contravention of section 50(1) of the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (CC Act);
 - (b) Bradken and Castle Harlan may have made and / or given effect to a cartel provision in contravention of sections 44ZZRJ and / or 44ZZRK of the CC Act. In particular, Norcast believes that Castle Harlan and Bradken:
 - (i) may have been actual or potential competitors for the acquisition of shares in NWS; and
 - (ii) may have entered into a contract, arrangement or understanding that had the purpose of ensuring that Castle Harlan would bid for the shares, but Bradken would not; and
 - (c) Bradken may have aided or abetted or induced or been knowingly concerned or conspired with Castle Harlan or others to effect a contravention of section 18 of the Australian Consumer Law (ie., Schedule 2 of the CC Act), Part 7.10 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth); and / or Part 2 Division 2 of the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001 (Cth). In particular, Norcast believes that it may have been misled or deceived by Castle Harlan negotiating and executing the share purchase agreement with Norcast without disclosing that Castle Harlan:
 - (i) was "partnering" with Bradken for the purposes of the acquisition of NWS;
 - (ii) was proposing to provide and/or providing confidential NWS information to Bradken; and/or
 - (iii) had a pre-existing contract, arrangement or understanding with Bradken that Bradken would not bid to acquire NWS from Norcast because Castle Harlan would on-sell NWS to Bradken immediately following Castle Harlan's acquisition from Norcast.

Information that Norcast requires in order to decide whether to start a proceeding

65. At present, Norcast does not have sufficient information to decide whether to start a proceeding in respect of the contraventions referred to in paragraph 64.

M. H. H. H.

66. The information which Norcast requires in order to decide whether to commence proceedings includes the following:
- (a) confirmation that there was a bid rigging contract, arrangement or understanding between Castle Harlan and Bradken, as Norcast believes;
 - (b) details of such a contract, arrangement or understanding (including the date upon which, and the circumstances in which, it was made);
 - (c) the dates and other details of Bradken's receipt of confidential NWS information via Castle Harlan;
 - (d) Bradken's knowledge of the non-disclosures and misrepresentations by Castle Harlan;
 - (e) Bradken's internal considerations (including considerations by its board of directors and/or senior management) of the acquisition of NWS (including strategic rational, market effects, expected synergies, strategy for negotiations, structure and identity of purchasing entity and the price which Bradken was prepared to pay); and
 - (f) information about the Australian market for grinding mill liners, including information provided by Bradken to the ACS for the purposes of investigations and/or inquiries by the ACS in relation to the importation into Australia of grinding mill liners from Canada.

Inquiries Norcast has made to obtain sufficient information to decide whether to start a proceeding against Bradken

67. As noted above, on 20 July 2011, Allens wrote to Mallesons seeking preliminary discovery in relation to the potential causes of action set out above (see Annexure MB-25). On 26 July 2011, Mallesons wrote to Allens refusing this request (see Annexure MB-26).
68. On 29 July 2011 Allens wrote to Mallesons again, addressing the reasons stipulated in Mallesons' letter for refusing the request for preliminary discovery (see Annexure MB-29).
69. Further letters were sent by Mallesons to Allens on 1 August 2011 and 2 August 2011 (Annexure MB-30).

AUSTRALIAN CUSTOMS DUMPING NOTICE NO. 2003/42

Iron and steel grinding mill liners
Canada

Finding in relation to an anti-dumping investigation

The Minister for Justice and Customs has accepted Customs' recommendations that anti-dumping action be taken in relation to the dumping of cast articles of iron and steel used to line grinding mills (the goods) exported to Australia from Canada. The goods do not include items used in fitting mill liners to grinding mills such as fillers, rings, bolts and washers.

In Report 70 Customs concluded that:

- exports of the goods from Canada were at dumped prices;
- the Australian industry has suffered injury;
- dumped imports have caused material injury to the Australian industry producing like goods; and
- material injury would continue to be caused to the Australian industry if the goods continue to be exported to Australia at dumped prices.

Customs recommended that:

- anti-dumping action be taken against the goods exported from Canada.

The material injury factors relevant to the industry are lost sales, price undercutting, price depression, loss of market share and loss of profits and profitability.

The Minister accepts Customs' recommendations and declares that s.8 of the Customs Tariff (Anti-Dumping) Act 1975 applies to:

- the goods and like goods exported to Australia from Canada and entered for home consumption on or after 20 February 2003 but before publication of the notice in The Gazette and The Australian; and
- like goods exported to Australia from Canada and entered for home consumption on or after the date of publication of the notice in The Gazette and The Australian.

Customs will not publicise normal values, export prices and non-injurious prices as they may reveal confidential details of the companies concerned. Upon request the CEO may notify normal value or export price or non injurious price to persons who, in the CEO's opinion, would be affected parties in any review of the rate of interim duty imposed on like goods to the goods to which the declaration relates.

Report 70 contains the reasons for Customs' recommendation and is available on request from the Trade Measures Office Management, Australian Customs Service, Canberra, telephone (02) 6275 6547 or on the Internet at <http://www.customs.gov.au>.

Public notice of the Minister's decision appeared in The Australian and The Gazette on 17 September 2003.

Interested parties may request a review of the Minister's decision by lodging an application with the Trade Measures Review Officer in the approved form and manner within 30 days of the publication of the notice. The legislation relating to the review of ministerial decisions is set out in the Customs Act 1901 commencing at s. 269ZZA.

Inquiries about this notice may be directed to the Director, Operations 2, on telephone number (02) 6275 6044 or facsimile number (02) 6275 6888.
